DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 2-12, and 14-20, drawn to methods of enhancing an immune response comprising administering an agent which is a nucleic acid sequence encoding a TAP molecule, classified in class 514, subclass 44.
- II. Claim 3-4, and 12-15, drawn to methods of enhancing an immune response comprising administering an agent which is interferon-gamma, classified in class 424, subclass 85.5.

Claim 1 link(s) inventions I and II. The restriction requirement between the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claim 1. Upon the allowance of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

Art Unit: 1632

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

administration of a nucleic acid encoding a TAP molecule is substantially different and unrelated to the administration of interferon-gamma. Nucleic acids have substantially different structural, physical, and functional properties than an interferon-gamma protein. Further, the mode of operation of a nucleic acid is substantially different from an interferon-gamma protein such that the administration of a nucleic acid leading to the expression of an encoded protein requires the introduction of the nucleic acid into cells and the expression of the encoded protein.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, different classification, and different search requirements, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Claim 10 recites the following patentably distinct species of a “gene inducible by”

- a) retinoic acid
- b) tumor necrosis factor
- c) interferon alpha
- d) interferon beta
- e) interferon gamma
- f) tapasin
- g) calnexin
- h) calreticulin

Art Unit: 1632

i) p53

j) p58

k) MHC I heavy chain

l) HSP 70

m) HSP 90

n) BIP

o) GRB94

p) inteferon response protein 3

q) interferon response protein 7.

Claim 11 recites the following patentably distinct species of “accessory molecule”

aa) tapasin

bb) calnexin

cc) calreticulin

dd) p58

ee) MHC class I heavy chain

ff) beta-2 microglobulin

gg) LMP2

hh) LMP7.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from each of groups a)-q) and aa)-hh) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 10 is generic.

Art Unit: 1632

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
